Toople of New York own the streets which are to be used for traffic, reasonable and pedestrian. No owner whose property abuts on the street has any more control ower the street in front of his premises than any other citizen.

There is no power in the city of New York nor within the Board of Albermen that can give any one any stolusive right on the part of any public street or highway. They can reguste traffic in the street, and I am hot prepared to say that they cannot set apart a portion of squares or streets for public back stands where the street or these conveyances are the stand in the order is which they street would certainly be made.

The Gift That Will Never Grow Dim

Hearken to this greatest Christmas surprise of all. A piano is the most wished-for of all gifts. A playerpiano is the added measure of supreme delight.

The Autopiano

is the player-piano you can well afford to own. It is fundamentally correct; thoroughly complete.

For combined tone-purity, playing expression and steadfast durability, no other player-piano at any price approaches it.

It is manufactured in New York City in the largest player-piano factory in the world.

You can buy an Autopiano for $475 to $1050. You may pay for it $10, $12.50 or $15 a month. No interest or extras.

Every Autopiano is definitely guaranteed.

Here is player-piano surety—a treasure-gift for every member of the household—casy to pay for, satisfying to possess.

So easy to own; think what it gives.
